- IV. PRINCIPAL'S REPORT
 - A. Instructional Goals--ERHS received the "Gold Medal" for our PD Series. The PD Series is geared to provide teachers with tools to use. Prior years the focus was on transitioning to Common Core. This year, the focus will be on Project Based Learning (PBL). District's goal is to integrate PBL across the board, therefore PD series this year will provide teachers with strategies and a build common knowledge and develop a baseline.
 - B. New Staff--Dean, Mr. Ledden has accepted another job; interviews are being held during the first week of October.
 - C. Back to School Night (BSN)--This year, we went back to an older format. The reason was to meet the objectives for BSN. Parents followed their student's schedule to meet their teachers and hear the expectations.
 - D. Other Information--ERHS had a successful College Night, where there was around 600 in attendance. We are able to hire a 50% Textbook Clerk (new position) to modernize our Textbook process and move to a digital format.
- V. NEW BUSINESS
 - A. Elections: Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, Parliamentarian/SSC Member Responsibilities--Mark Gutierrez is the new Chair and Josie Cambero is the new Vice Chair. Robert Gallegos is our Parliamentarian and April Farris will continue as Secretary. Responsibilities were summarized.
